

Peace Science Society - International -

The 56th North American Annual Meeting

November 3-5, 2022

Denver, Colorado
Hosted by the University of Denver

The Peace Science Society

The Peace Science Society (International), or PSS(I), is an association for the advancement of peace and conflict research. The Society operates as an objective, professional, and scholarly organization without political, ideological, financial, or national bias. PSS(I) is not confined to a particular academic discipline, but welcomes and utilizes relevant work across the social and natural sciences. Moreover, the Society is committed to promoting work which utilizes rigorous scientific methods and analyses on the causes of conflict and the promotion of peace. PSS(I) facilitates acquaintance and provides a vehicle for discussion among its members worldwide. It encourages and supports the publication of research, particularly, but not exclusively, quantitative research. PSS(I) does not promote direct political action or polemical discussion.

Network of European Peace Scientists

The 2023 The Jan Tinbergen Network of European Peace Scientists (NEPS) meeting will be held in June 2023 at University of Bologna. The deadline for submission is December 20, 2022.

NEPS is an international association for the advancement of peace research and related studies in Europe. The principle criterion of eligibility for membership in NEPS is a mature and deep interest in the field of Peace Research. A member of NEPS receives the emails and newsletters of the network. Membership is € 60 for basic membership and € 30 for students. If you would like to become a member, send an email to the NEPS Executive Coordinator Arzu Kibris at A.Kibris@warwick.ac.uk . Awards

Stuart A. Bremer Travel Award For the Best Graduate Student Paper

The Stuart A. Bremer Travel Award is presented to the author(s) of the best graduate student paper delivered at each year's Peace Science Society meeting. Papers eligible for consideration include those associated with poster presentations made at the meeting as well as those presented at the meeting's regular sessions. Co-authored papers may be considered for the award if all of the authors are graduate students at the time of the meeting.

The author(s) of the winning paper receives travel support of $2000 to present the paper at the 2023 meeting of the Network of European Peace Scientists in Bologna, Italy. The winner will be selected on the basis of the paper's potential scientific significance and its contribution to the study of peace science. Nomination must be made by one of the authors of the paper.

For consideration, papers must be sent electronically (and preferably as a PDF file) to psasi@unt.edu by November 19, 2022. The winning paper will be announced in January, 2023.
